ARCHBISHOP'S MISSION TO THE ASSYRIAN CHRISTIANS.

List of Books printed at the Mission Press in Urmi

HE books are all printed at the Urmi Mission House by youths trained ere, and almost all the type used is from matrices specially made for the lission on the premises by an Armenian workman. They are in the East yrian or Nestorian type, which differs materially from the Syriac type mmonly used in Europe (the Western Syrian or Jacobite), as that alone, h the Estrangela, to which it has a great likeness, is used by the people for om the books are intended.

1. The Liturgy of St. Adæus and St. Maris is printed as it is recited at present day, a large number of MSS. having been collated for the rpose, the oldest however being only some 300 years old. The MSS. mployed are of different dialects and follow the different traditions. But none of them have been altered, as of late years has frequently been the case, by the Roman Catholic "Chaldeans" (ex-Nestorians) of Mosul.
The whole, with the exceptions mentioned below, has been printed in full, and in its proper order as given by the great majority of the best MSS.
available; whereas in the MSS. often only the first words are given and reference has to be made to the collection of collects for various times prefixed to many manuscript Takhsas. The only things not printed in full are
(1) the varying "Marmitha" or portion of Psalms on p. 1: (the fixed Psalms re, however, printed in full with their giuri or "farcings"). (2) The four ections: from the Old Testament and Acts: St. Paul's Epistles, and the ospel; (3) The varying Shuraya and Zumara which somewhat correspond the Gradual, and the varying Turgamas, or expositions of the Epistle and ospel. (4) The Litany "Father of Mercies" said daily by the Deacon, as a rule at every service, and known by heart: the other litanies, however, which are less known, are printed in full. (5) The Unitha of the Sacrament, a varying anthem; and (6) The Lord's Prayer when repeated.
In this Liturgy the Words of Institution are printed as in 1 Cor. xi, although they are not found in any but very modern Mosul MSS. They are placed where they occur in the other East Syrian liturgies, just before the Canon "For all these aids and graces towards us," and before the Great Intercession and Invocation. The Words of Institution and Invocation are marked by large type.
This liturgy is of primary authority and is used whenever the other two are not specially ordered.

2. The Second Liturgy, commonly ascribed to Theodore the Interpreter, is appointed to be used from the first Sunday in Advent till Palm Sunday.
The first and last portions of this and of the Third Liturgy and also a few long prayers, are taken from the Liturgy of the Apostles, and are therefore not repeated, but page-references are given.

3. The Third Liturgy, commonly attributed to Nestorius, is celebrated on five days in the year: Epiphany, St. John Baptist, The Greek Doctors, Wednesday of the Fast of the Ninevites, and Maundy Thursday (The Passover). All these fall between Epiphany and Easter. The portion of the liturgy not taken from the First or Apostle's Liturgy is longer than in the case of the second, and contains several Qulasi or interjectory ejaculations of some length by the Deacon.

4. The Short Anthems or Qanun d'khilath follow. These are used on the principal feasts of our Lord, among which the Transfiguration and the Holy Cross are included.

5. The Baptismal Office follows in full, with psalms, litanies, and lections complete. The close resemblance of its form to that of the liturgies is referred to by Neale.

The double Invocation is in the print distinguished by large type.

The above (1–5) form the greater part of the book called the Takhsa, or Order, and as printed they make a book of 80 pp. quarto, with the rubrics in red and the interwoven cross pattern such as is found in the MSS., drawn by the brother of the Catholicos from an old stone cross in the patriarchal church. For the copies sent to Europe a special title page and introduction (in Latin) has been printed. The price of each copy is 21/0 in sheets, or 25/0 bound.

6. A Lectionary of 20 pp. 8vo. has been printed. This gives the Lessons as used in the Liturgy and Baptismal Service for every day for which they are provided by the Khudhra. There the first and last words only are given, and the number of the ancient section, or shakha. In the printed lectionary the chapter and verse and shakha are all given. The great object of this print is to revive the use of Holy Scripture in the Liturgy. The extreme difficulty of finding the right place having led largely to its disuse. There are no Lessons at the ordinary morning or evening services. Price 5/0.

7. A Syriac (classical) Grammar of 72 pp. 8vo. is now ready. The explanations are in modern Syriac. This grammar, which is founded partly on the Eastern copies of Bar Hebræus and Bar Zobai, gives the Eastern Syrian traditions from which the Jacobite grammars in many cases differ. Price 10/6.

8. A modern Syriac Grammar, with an analytical spelling book of the vernacular Syriac of Urmi and Kurdistan, is also ready. This gives a comparison of the various dialects, which differ much, and as far as possible traces the connection of the vernacular forms with the classical Syriac. Price 10/6, 108 pp. 8vo.

9. A Larger Catechism in the vernacular is in the press.

10. A Shorter Catechism for Elementary Schools (20 pp. 8vo.) was published in 1889. Price 2/6.

11. An Easy Ecclesiastical History of the First Four Centuries has been printed in the vernacular, for the High Schools. Price 2/6.

12. A Vocabulary of Modern Syriac Verbs, now in use in the various districts, with their meanings in English. The meanings often vary according to the district, and in these cases the name of the dialect in which a particular signification is used is given.

To the Vocabulary is prefixed a short English Grammar, with the explanations in the vernacular, for the use of the English classes in the Mission Schools.

Price of the Vocabulary and Grammar, 5/0.

13. The press has also issued for local use a Register of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, &c., and a short Spelling Book of 8 pp. 8vo.

14. The Psalter as divided by the Eastern Syrians, is in the press.

These books may be obtained from the S.P.C.K. House, in Northumberland Avenue. An English translation of the Takhsa will shortly be published by the S.P.C.K. for the Mission, and may be obtained, like the other pamphlets, at 7, Dean's Yard, or through any Local Secretary of the Association in aid of the Mission.
